Offence range: Fine – 5 years' custody

Breach of a Sexual Harm Prevention Order

STEP ONE

Determining the offence category

The court should determine the offence category with reference only to the factors listed in the tables below. In order to determine the category the court should assess culpability and harm.

Culpability

A	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Flagrant, serious or persistent breach</li> </ul>
B	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Factors in categories A and C not present</li> </ul>
C	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Minor breach</li> <li>Breach just short of reasonable excuse</li> </ul>

Harm

The level of harm is determined by weighing up all the factors of the case to determine the harm that has been caused or was intended to be caused.

Category 1	Breach causes or risks very serious harm or distress
Category 2	Factors in categories 1 and 3 not present
Category 3	Breach causes or risks little or no harm or distress

STEP TWO

Starting point and category range

Having determined the category at step one, the court should use the corresponding starting point to reach a sentence within the category range from the appropriate sentence table below. The starting point applies to all offenders irrespective of plea or previous convictions.

Harm	Culpability
	A	B	C
Category 1	Starting point 3 years' custody	Starting point 2 years' custody	Starting point 1 year's custody
	Category range 2 – 4 years 6 months' custody	Category range 36 weeks' – 3 years' custody	Category range High level community order – 2 years' custody
Category 2	Starting point 2 years' custody	Starting point 1 year's custody	Starting point High level community order
	Category range 36 weeks' – 3 years' custody	Category range High level community order – 2 years' custody	Category range Medium level community order – 26 weeks' custody
Category 3	Starting point 1 year's custody	Starting point 26 weeks' custody	Starting point Medium level community order
	Category range High level community order – 2 years' custody	Category range Medium level community order – 36 weeks' custody	Category range Band B fine – High level community order

The table on the next page contains a non-exhaustive list of additional factual elements providing the context of the offence and factors relating to the offender. Identify whether any combination of these, or other relevant factors, should result in an upward or downward adjustment from the starting point. In some cases, having considered these factors, it may be appropriate to move outside the identified category range.

Factors increasing seriousnessStatutory aggravating factors:

Previous convictions, having regard to a) the nature of the offence to which the conviction relates and its relevance to the current offence; and b) the time that has elapsed since the conviction

Offence committed whilst on bail

Other aggravating factors:

Breach committed shortly after order made

History of disobedience of court orders

Breach involves a further offence (where not separately prosecuted)

Targeting of particular individual the order was made to protect

Victim or protected subject of order breached is particularly vulnerable

Offender takes steps to prevent victim or subject harmed by breach from reporting an incident or seeking assistance

Factors reducing seriousness or reflecting personal mitigation

Breach committed after long period of compliance

Prompt voluntary surrender/admission of breach

Age and/or lack of maturity where it affects the responsibility of the offender

Mental disorder or learning disability where linked to the commission of the offence

Sole or primary carer for dependant relatives

See page 93.

STEP THREE*Consider any factors which indicate a reduction for assistance to the prosecution

The court should take into account sections 73 and 74 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (assistance by defendants: reduction or review of sentence) and any other rule of law by virtue of which an offender may receive a discounted sentence in consequence of assistance given (or offered) to the prosecutor or investigator.

STEP FOUR*Reduction for guilty pleas

The court should take account of any reduction for a guilty plea in accordance with section 144 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and the Guilty Plea guideline.

STEP FIVE*Totality principle

If sentencing an offender for more than one offence, or where the offender is already serving a sentence, consider whether the total sentence is just and proportionate to the overall offending behaviour in accordance with the Offences Taken into Consideration and Totality guideline.

STEP SIX*Ancillary orders

In all cases the court should consider whether to make ancillary orders.

STEP SEVEN*Reasons

Section 174 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 imposes a duty to give reasons for, and explain the effect of, the sentence.

STEP EIGHT*Consideration for time spent on bail

The court must consider whether to give credit for time spent on bail in accordance with section 240A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.
